Get skilled better...

QUINTESSENTIAL
BEAUTY

Mission statement:

A Beauty Academy in the “Get Skilled Better” business, transforming all aspects of the spa industry by offering the highest quality training in collaboration with our international expert partners, both in class and online.

We aim to wow you by ensuring we foster long-term win-win partnerships with you, understanding your needs and delivering beyond your expectations every time. We know we will be the first school you call because we strive for excellence with one purpose in focus

- you achieving your goals and becoming a success in the spa industry.*

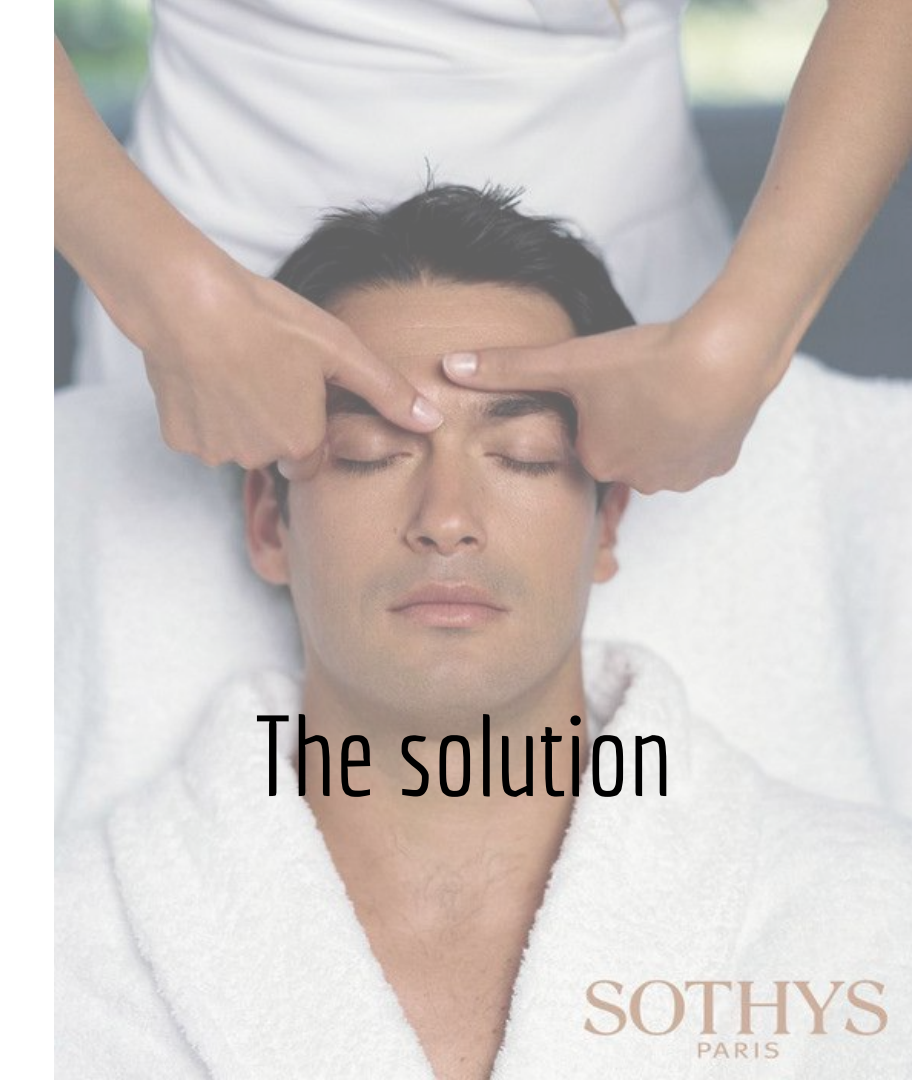

The problem

You want the skills to become a Professional Beauty Therapist this year, you search and have high hopes, but you only find schools where you are left with:

- sourcing your own products, materials and no professional product knowledge
 - little practical, no hands on
 - basic, archaic information
 - no international collaboration
 - no job placement or prospects

The face of frustration...

The solution
